

An aerial, high-angle photograph of Old Trafford stadium in Manchester, England. The stadium's distinctive white, lattice-like roof structure is prominent, covering the pitch and surrounding seating areas. The pitch itself is visible in the center, with red seating visible around its perimeter. The surrounding area includes parking lots, roads, and some greenery. The overall image has a dark, muted color palette, with the stadium's white structure standing out.

NO.7 AT OLD TRAFFORD

The split-level No.7 suite at Old Trafford can be divided into four soundproof rooms, making it ideal if flexibility and concentration are needed. Three syndicate rooms can each hold up to 50 people, with the additional main room holding up to 200 people, each in theatre style.

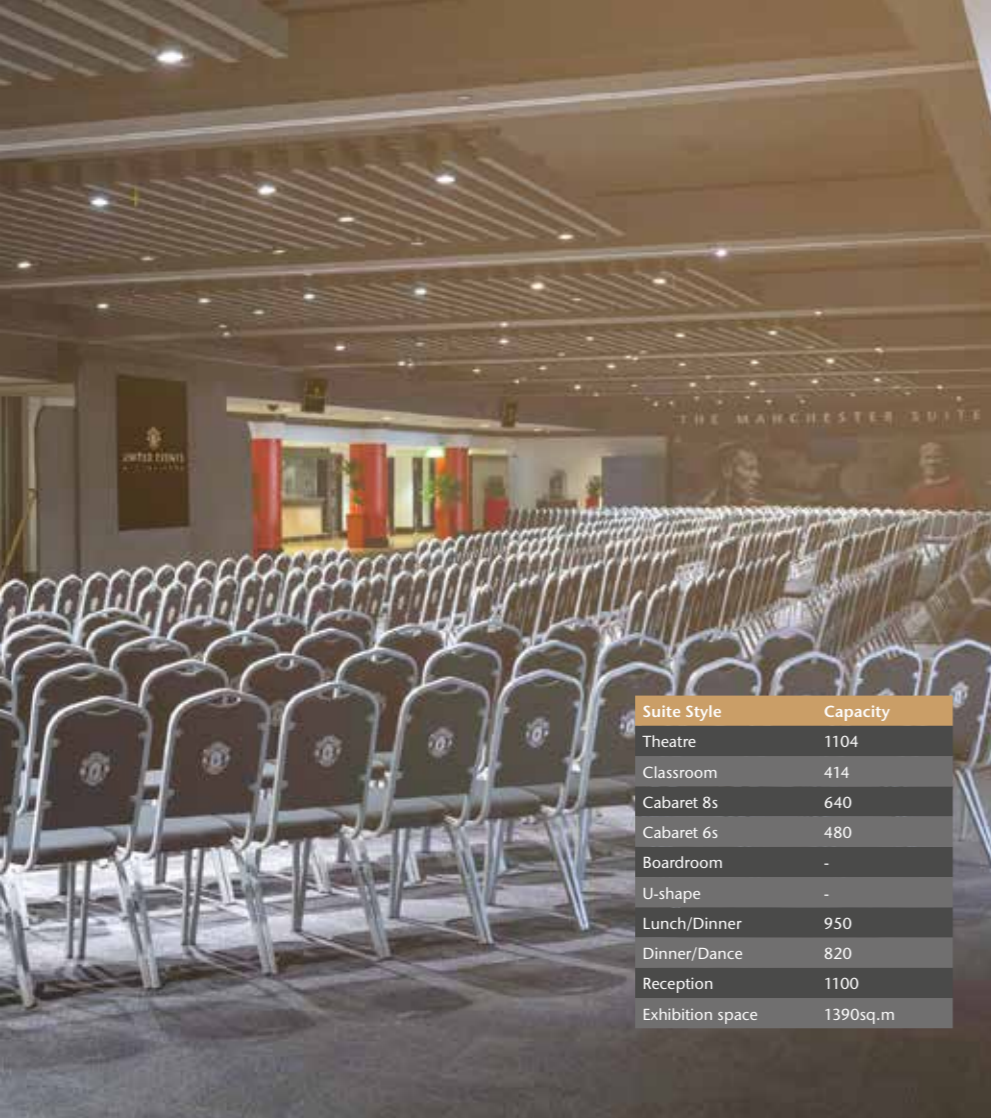

An in-built dance floor makes entertaining hassle-free in this striking space. A separate bar area just off the main room offers flexible relaxation space and inspiration in the form of quotes from the legendary former Manager, Sir Matt Busby.

SALFORD SUITES

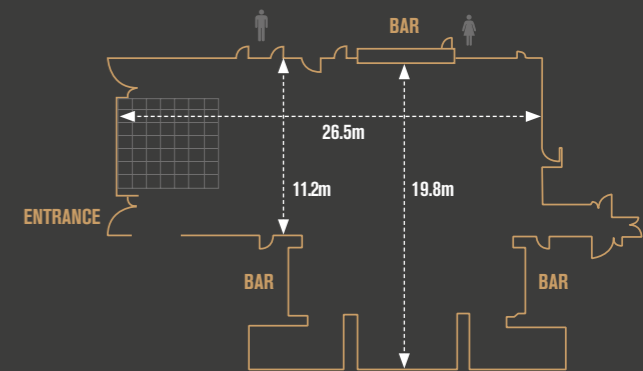

If you'd like to inspire and excite hundreds of people, Salford Grill and Salford Bar & Kitchen are ideal. After all, what could be more thrilling than close access to the space where countless legendary moments have taken place? What they also offer is flexibility. The suites can be linked via a private foyer area or used independently.

Both can be used as large syndicate areas for the Manchester Suite, the layout of each making them extremely popular. Salford Bar & Kitchen is the largest of the two. Salford Grill has a useful breakout room with panoramic views over the stunning Quays.

DINING

Our rosette standard chefs create fabulous cuisine whether your event is large or small. We offer a selection of carefully crafted set menus to choose from, or we're happy to work with you to create something individually tailored to your event. All of our food is ethically-sourced and comes from local farmers and growers wherever possible.

A carefully chosen wine list is available to complement the food and there are well-stocked bars in each of our suites. But along with great food must come great service. Our highly-trained staff are experts in the art of serving your guests quickly, professionally and of course, always with a smile.
