Change Please

The social-enterprise coffee company have teamed up with the club and our catering partners, Sodexo Live!, to provide award-winning coffee across our hospitality, conferencing and events spaces, as well as for supporters on our concourses.

Change Please was created to fight homelessness through selling great tasting coffee. Since 2015, they have been using 100% of their profits to give people experiencing homelessness a living wage, job, housing, training and onwards opportunities.

Cemal Ezel, Founder and CEO of Change Please, said: “Thanks to this fantastic partnership we can continue to spread our message to more people. Blackburn Rovers are an incredibly community-focussed club and with the continued support of Sodexo Live!, we can have more impact and give more people fighting homelessness another shot at life. This is our mission.”
